

We are Foxley Kingham Chartered Accountants & Business Advisers, a leading independent firm established in 1968, serving clients across Central and South East England, providing a top-quality service and specialist advice on a wide range of financial matters.

Our Team

We have a team of just over 60 staff offering a comprehensive service, combining the values and friendly manner of a local practice with the imaginative use of technology and innovation and we are always looking to grow with local talented individuals.

We have an ethos of nurturing, growing and developing talent from within to ensure we have a highly qualified, talented and enthusiastic team of individuals who can deliver the top level of service to our clients.

We are an authorised training provider of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales (ICAEW) and are proud to announce our team members Aimee Dimmock in 2019 was awarded with 'First place and the Livery Company Prize for the Level 4 Accounting Technician Apprenticeship', an ICAEW global award. Abbie Hedges in 2020 was awarded with 'Second place and the Livery Company Prize for the Level 4 Accounting Technician Apprenticeship' and an exam award for achieving 100% in the CFAB Accounting Exam.
